Dear George,

The month was June, the day was twelve, in nineteen twenty one.
A little Waters boy was born, his parents had a son!
The chosen name, George that they chose, a handsome little guy...
Soon grew into a fine young man, in missions he would fly.
A sweet young maiden he did choose to be his lovely wife,
Mavis her name; they were to share a long, long wedded life.
Eighty one years I hear 'twas told and nearly eighty two.
Hardly one can e'er match that...congratulations due!
Remembering the years gone by for each of us he gave
His time, our country served with pride, he was among the brave.
That we may sing with voices strong, 'God bless our native land',
Freedom, ours, thanks to you George, so we can take our stand.
And shout it from the mountaintops or in our humble home,
At Worthington Manor, or wherever we may roam.
We wish a happy birthday on this special 102,
All honor to George Waters, this day belongs to you.

Harriet Graf
